The New York Weekly Tribune gives all the foreign, telegraphic and general news of the week, and its story, agricultural, home circle, humorous, market, science and mechanics, sporting, club, fashion and women's departments make it an invaluable newspaper. The ALAMOGORDO NEWS gives the home happenings fully. Both papers should be in the home of every person who desires to keep well informed. Under a special clubbing arrangement, the Tribune will be given with THE NEWS at the old subscription rate, $1.50 per year, to paid-in-advance subscribers.

A COWBOY'S ADVICE.

Gave a Show-Struck Young Miss Much-Needed Lecture.

One of the principal riders of the wild west show whose dashing and dangerous feats in the ring won the plaudits of thousands of people daily is a great favorite with the matinee girls. This young man one Saturday figured in a little scene that was not down on the bills, says the Chicago Evening News.

It was after the regular afternoon performance and this modern cavalier was preparing to make some change in his costume that he might appear in the street, when the flap of his tent was drawn timidly back and a young girl, pretty, and not more than 18 years old, stood inside gazing with admiration at this handsome cowboy.

"Well! little girl, is there anything I can do for you?" he asked, as he unbuckled the revolver belt from his waist. The girl stood for a moment too frightened to speak, but at last she burst into tears and confessed her admiration for the rough rider. She further said she had attended the show every afternoon and several evenings since it had been here; that she wanted to run away from home and go along with the show.

During the recital the crack rider of the wild west show sat on the end of a box quietly smoking a cigarette. "See here! You need some good advice," said he, when she had finished. "You are at just that age when some one ought to give you a lecture. You seem to have fallen in love with a man you know nothing about. So just fall out again and remember you've been a little fool. Why, I've a daughter of my own just about your age."

A LUCKY FIND.

Prospectors Open a Cache Containing Money and Provisions.

About eight miles out on the road, between here and Pellman's well, Andy Fupus and Noah Partee, prospectors, made quite a discovery last Monday in the shape of a cache of treasure and mining implements, including gads, drills, picks, shovels, two saws, hammer, ax and a coffee mill, also about 75 or 100 pounds of gold bearing rock. They found fifty Mexican dollars and 190 clackers scattered over the ground. The money and tools had evidently been buried in sacks and been dug up by coyotes, as they were scattered over several feet of ground. The handles of the tools were rotted off, showing they were cached years ago. There is no doubt but that money and articles were hidden by some one with the intention of returning in a short time, as one of the sacks contained coffee and chewing tobacco. It is supposed they either lost their bearings and could not locate the spot again or were killed by Indians. The boys took the rock with them to the well, beat it up and it panned out in gold $31.40.—Tulosa Democrat.

CATTLE IN OTERO COUNTY.

J. S. Morgan, of Dog Canyon, Tells Something of Conditions There.

J. S. Morgan, a cattleman of Otero county, well known in El Paso, has been in the city for several days. When asked regarding the conditions in Otero county, he said:

"They are very good, indeed. The cattle are numerous and in fine condition. The ranges are excellent and everybody is doing well. There has been nothing startling of late. No big deals of any kind, but the general run of business is very good."

Mr. Morgan's place is about five miles from Oliver Lee's ranch at Dog Canyon.—El Paso Times.

When you subscribe for THE NEWS mention that you desire to take advantage of the Tribune clubbing arrangement.

A Woman's Awful Peril.
There is only one chance to save your life and that is through an operation. The startling words heard by Mrs. J. B. Hunt, of Llane Ridge, Wis., from her doctor after he had vainly tried to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice, that stomach and bowels, and she began to slowly grow worse. Then she began to hear of Electric Bitters which wholly cured her. It was a wonderful stomach, liver and kidney remedy. Cures Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite. Only 50c a bottle. For sale by W. F. Higgins & Co.

THEIR OPINION OF HIM.

Slow-Head Government Clerk Tried to Make an Impression.

Last winter a delegation of Indians from a far western state, on a tour of inspection through the interior department, visited the land office, where they were introduced to the clerk who had special charge of their section of the country, a bumptious little individual with a big head. This official proceeded to overpower the Redmen with his importance, says a Washington Tribune. Grasping each one of them cordially by the hand, he patted them patronizingly on their backs and then delivered a long speech, explaining in detail the work of the office, their interest in it, laying particular stress on the fact that he was the motive power of it all. As soon as their entertainer paused for breath the visiting Indians began to grunt and talk among themselves.

"What are they saying?" asked the egotistical clerk, expecting to hear high praise of himself. "Tell me what they are saying."

"I cannot tell you," replied the interpreter. "It was not for you to hear."

But the little man insisted, and with great reluctance the interpreter finally yielded. "They said," he translated, "Little man, big head, heap talk, say nothing, much fool."

COPPER IS KING.

Foreign Consumption of the Metal Continues to Increase.

Foreign demand for copper continues undiminished and the probability is that prices will advance toward the first of the year. The consumption of copper in England for the first seven months of the year was 43,877 tons, nearly 19,836 tons more than for the same period last year. French consumption for the same period this year was 38,361 tons, which was 5,688 tons more than for the same period last year. Germany, however, is consuming more copper at present than any other foreign country, 39,696 tons of imported copper (not including pyrites) being the amount consumed for the first six months of the year. As the foreign consumer is the customer for American copper, the foreign consumption is gratifying when we consider that within the four years and a half ending June 31, 1900, the United States has produced 1,064,077 tons of fine copper and exported 621,636 tons.

No one can reasonably hope for good health unless his bowels move once each day. When this is not attended to, disorders of the stomach arise, biliousness, headache, dyspepsia and piles soon follow. If you wish to avoid these ailments keep your bowels regular by taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets when required. They are so easy to take and mild and gentle in effect. For sale by Warren & Co.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

Some women couldn't catch a man with a camera. The trouble with most men is that their wives don't cost them enough. No woman's mind was ever changed by an argument unless she wanted it to be.

A married man has got a few more exemptions from creditors than an old bachelor, but he has a lot more creditors.

If you would have an appetite like a bear and a relish for your meals take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They correct disorders of the stomach and regulate the liver and bowels. Price, 25 cents. Samples free, at Warren & Co's drug store.

The Forces of Nature.

The great Inventive Genius was very courteous. "Yes, he explained, I am about to harness the gloaming!"

"The gloaming?" we cried in amazement. "The gloaming," repeated the great Inventive Genius. The subtle but vast force which now finds its only escape in romantic poetry, I propose to use for running factories and things.

Then he showed us the intricate devices he had constructed. They were exceedingly wonderful. "I suffered such pain from corns I could hardly walk," writes H. Robinson, Hillsborough, Ill., "but Bucklen's Arnica Salve completely cured them." Acts like magic on sprains, bruises, cuts, sores, scalds, burns, boils, ulcers. Perfect healer of skin diseases and piles. Cure guaranteed by W. E. Warren & Co.

Sentiment in Circulation.

"Never propose to a girl by letter." "Why not?"

"I did so once and she stuck the letter in a book she was reading and lent it to another girl."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses of 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

At the Steeplechase.

She—Did you notice whether Ernest cleared the ditch or not?

He—Oh yes. He cleared it before his horse did.

—When in El Paso stop at the Orchard, the only first class hotel in the city. Rooms single or en suite. Elevator, electric light, hot and cold water, baths and all modern conveniences. Fire proof.

REDOUTABLE PAT.

A Denver Paper Prints a Cock and Bull Story of Border Life.

The Denver Times is responsible for a three-column tale of bloodthirstiness about Hon. Pat Garrett, who, it states, is about to retire to private life.

The article is illustrated by the picture of a young dude wearing a standing collar and fedora hat which is labelled "Plucky Pat Garrett."

Garrett's great virtue as a sheriff, says the story, lies in the fact that he "draws the quickest bead in the Southwest." He is the quietest, softest speaking man in the territory—and the deadliest shot. When he was young and his manner of handling a gun was not yet known, he was tenderly taken aside by a friendly desperado (who was not "wanted" at the moment) and advised to resign and escape to Texas, where peace and quiet reigned, at least at intervals.

"This country is too warm for the like of you," urged the desperado, "and you'll not last through the summer." "Thanks," drawled Pat Garrett, "I can stand considerable heat, and I guess I'll stay."

Pat Garrett has his own peculiar method of handling a gun, admirably suited to a country where, when you need a gun, you need it quick. It is a simple method, according to an admiring friend, who says:

"Pat's the most sudden man with a six-shooter that you ever saw. He can pull his gun quicker'n a fly will move when you take a swat at it. He never takes aim when he shoots. He doesn't waste valuable time that way. He just shoots and his bullets go where he wants them to."

Garrett gave the first demonstration of his skill with a pistol for the benefit of a Western gentleman indulging in a little Western saloon merriment. The gentleman—one greenfelt, with a weakness for other men's horses—was amusing himself in a saloon making a couple of men lance by shooting at their feet. A third, whose terpsichorean skill or bashfulness had met the disapproval of the horse thief, lay on the floor with a bullet inconveniently concealed in his person, when Pat Garrett casually dropped in.

"Three hands round," whooped the horse thief, shifting his pistol toward Garrett, and almost on the last word he lunged forward on his face with a bullet through his heart. The last sound he heard in this world was Garrett's drawing comment:

"You're a poor caller."

Pat Garrett further convinced the border folk that he was at home in their "warm" country by interrupting the flight of three Mexican bandits at Las Tablas. While on their trail they ambushed him. He dropped behind his horse, and while they were popping away at him he shot from under the animal and picked them off, losing his horse in the battle.

How to Tell Him.

A Kansas paper has discovered how to tell a man's politics when you meet him in a hotel wash room. The Republican will wash and empty the basin; the Democrat will wash and leave the water standing; the Populist will wash in the water left by the Democrat.

A Variation of the Fool.
"That friend of mine in the British army sent me a keg of Chinese wine that he looted in Pekin. The stuff was half water."

"Evidently diluted."

Board of Education, Chicago, Feb. 21, 1900.

Mr. John H. Schofield is well and favorably known to me as the successful director of a large shorthand college in Providence, R. I. I consider him not only one of the most expert shorthand writers whom I have ever known, but also an upright, honorable and perfectly trustworthy gentleman.

E. BENJ. ANDREWS, Superintendent of Schools.

Commenting on Mr. Schofield's ability and character, President E. G. Robinson, of Brown University, Providence, R. I., contributes the following:

I have known Mr. John H. Schofield for years as stenographic reporter for the Providence Journal. His work has given special satisfaction to all parties concerned. His character as a Christian gentleman has also commanded respect, and I take pleasure in commending him to the confidence and good will of all with whom he may meet or with whom he may have business relations.

E. G. ROBINSON, President Brown University.

Brother Fabrican, of La Salle College, Philadelphia, Pa., adds the following testimonial:

La Salle College, Philadelphia, Pa. Mr. John H. Schofield: My Dear Sir,—It gives me much pleasure in saying a timely word to bear witness to your character as a man, and your ability as a journalist and shorthand writer. I hope and pray that your efforts, in whatever channel you may choose to direct them, will be rewarded with the measure of success which your talents, your energy and your accomplishments must win. You are, however, too well and favorably known to need this note or recognition from your very sincere and devoted friend.
